Keystone Comedies.

For the last half of this week the management of the Davis promise one of the finest vaudeville and photo plays of the season. The Keith acts are Pearl Abbott & Co., in the delightful comedy sketch called Silver Threads. This is something different from anything ever seen here and is sure to be a big hit. The Jupiter Trio come next with a sensational triple bar act. There are two men and one lady in the set and they are all physimany of the late popular successes, in-cluding The Little Grey Mother, Mon-terey, Are You Half the Man Your Mother Thought You'd Ba? and brothers and sisters and stands up company's store.

her by her departed father. It is a There was a m possession of valuable lands left to her by her departed father. It is a fast-moving story and the scenes are laid both in the sunny atmosphere of Southern California and the ocean-gwept coast of cold New England. It abounds with many homely dramatic situations as well as sensational fights between troopers and bandits.

There will also be the usual funny two-reel Keystone comedy, the one on this bill is called A Modern Enoch Arden, and is a scream. Matinee at 2.15, all seats 10 cents; evening at 6.45 and 8.45, 10, 15 and 20 cents.

BREED THEATRE.

today. On Friday and Saturday Blanche Sweet, the popular idol of the photo-dramatic stage, will be seen at the Breed theatre in the Jesse L. Lasky production of The Dupe, a thrilling social drama written especially for her by Hector Turnbull. This picture has what is said to be the recommended. has what is said to be the most exsive cast ever assembled in the pensive cast ever assembled in the fox hunt scenes, which were taken in and around the most exclusive hunt club in the United States during the annual spring hunt.

his play abounds in unusually thrill-situations and deals with some strange but most interesting evolutions in modern society.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Alice Brady in The Woman in 47, Five-Reel Feature for Today. Friday and Saturday.

Between a little roadside tavern in Italy and the happiness which comes to her in the great metropolis. Alice Brady, the star of The Woman in 47. goes through a series of adventures and mishaps which make a photodrama of wonderfully compelling force and gripping intensity. She has been seen in other photoplays, and her face is familiar to lovers of the screen, but in this latest vehicle for the exploitation of her great dramatic powers she has exceeded even the highest expectation aroused by her previous work. The story itself is packed full of scenes and situations which the familier and overworked word "thrilling" is too weak to describe, which must be seen to be appreciated, and when seen will leave an indelible impress upon the memory. The defense of honor, recov-ery of lost ground, and the final salvation of her happiness through the inwith an ambitious reporter who ter with an ambitious reporter whose better patters overcomes his professional enthusinam, are only a few of the vital points in this wonderful presentation. The play was produced by the Froman Amusement corresponds of the Equitable occuram, and is in every way up to the high standard set Grant, the Police Reporter, featuring daredevil George Larkin, and a very funny cartoon comedy reel. There will be three shows daily. Matinee 10c. Evenings 10c and 20c.

PROFESSOR FARRELL

BUYS BARD PROPERTY Will be Occupied by Him After Improvements Are Made.

Archa W. Coit has sold for the heirs of Minerva T. Bard the fine residence property known as No. 262 Washing-ton street to Prof. Frank L. Farrell, This was at one time the home of the late Walter Fuller, a prominent Norwich banker, and was afterward the home of the late George F. Bard, founder of the Bard Union company of this city. The property has an ex-tensive frontage on Washington street and has a depth of 200 feet. After improvements are made to the house and grounds, Professor Farrell plans to occupy his newly acquired home.

CENT "DANDERINE" WILL SAVE YOUR HAIR AND DOUBLE ITS BEAUTY.

TRY THIS! YOUR HAIR GETS SOFT, WAVY, ABUNDANT AND GLOSSY AT ONCE.

Save your hair! Beautify it! It is only a matter of using a little Dander-ine occasionally to have a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, wavy and free from dandruff. It is easy and inexpensive to have pretty, charming hair and lots of it. Just get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Dan-derine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance; freshness, appearance of abundance; freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you can not find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower; destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp, and it never fails to stop falling hair at once. If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and care-fully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries

Buy your bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar-now, and quickly stop the coughs and colds of uarly fall.

Early fall brings croup, bronchitis, asthmatic breathing, troublesome night coughs, whooping cough, and tackling, irri-table throat.

It aggravates the distressing cough of weak lungs, and the chronic coughs of elderly people.

It gives "snuffles" to infants and children and provokes adenoids and sore inflamed throats.

throats.

Give Foloy's Honey and Tar freely. It is as soothing and curative, relieves hoarseness and puts a healing coating on the inflamed mucous lining of the throat. It stops coughing easily and quickly and relieves croup before this dreaded thing has a chapeet o really harm the children or sears the parents. The last does is just as good as the first, and a less amount is needed than of any other cough syrup.

So sea to it that you get only the original

So see to it that you get only the original FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR, for it is the only genuine, and contains no opiates. Lee & Osgood Co.

The first electric lamps ever made in Argentina recently were turned out at a new plant. A clip has been invented for holding a spoon on the edge of a cooking utensil or medicine galss.

New York state consumes 370,000,- 000 feet of lumber annually packing boxes and crates. A bed that folds into the wall and is hidden by a pair of doors is the idea of a Colorado inventor.

Oil obtained from seeds of Bra-zillan rubber trees has been found an ecceptable substitute for linceed oil by With but a slight increase in size, a watch has been provided with a dry battery and electric lamp so that it can be read at night.

German tests have shown a scarcity of good cattle fodder does not de-crease the fat content, but only the quantity of milk produced. An internal combustion locomotive oil for fuel frequently attains a speed of 60 miles an hour. Both the stepped legs and the brac-ing legs of an Oregon inventor's step-ladder telescope so that it will stand evenly on uneven surfaces.
